Things to Know

Librarian Help
Librarians are available to help you with your library or research needs. Librarians are at the Reference Desk weekdays while the library is open.

Children in the Library
Children accompanied by their parents are welcome in the library. There is a collection of children’s books in a number of different languages available near the Circulation Services desk. Multi-lingual books are marked with a green dot sticker.

Quiet Study Areas/Rooms
There are specific areas that are quiet study areas. They are located near the windows and are marked. There are 3 rooms that can be used as group study areas or quiet areas. They are located at the end of the ramp. You can reserve these rooms by signing up for them on the door.

Technology

Computers
Computers are available for student use in the library and in the Academic Computer Lab. They are available on a first come, first serve basis.

Printing
Students are able to print from the computers in the library or computer lab. You will need to have a print account created. Speak to Josh Aman (in Dye 127) for help creating an account.

Scanning
Scanning is available for free in the library. You can scan material and send it to yourself in an email, print it, or save it to a USB flash drive.

Copying
Copying is available at a cost of 10 cents for black & white and 15 cents for color.

ESL Resources

CCC Library is committed to the success of all students at Clackamas Community College. Our goals are to ensure students have the materials needed and to provide help accessing them.

Course Reserves

Many textbooks, also called Course Reserves, are available for students to borrow from the Circulation Services desk. You will need a photo ID and the name of the book you want. Library staff will get the book.

- Course reserves for ESL classes may be borrowed for 5 hours. You are allowed to take these books to class with you, just make sure you return them within the 5 hour checkout period.

New Reader Collection

The New Reader Collection are books intended to help build reading skills for individuals new to reading English. They are color coded and labeled to help readers find books at exactly the right reading level. Some New Reader books have accompanying CDs. Ask a librarian if you need help locating the New Reader Collection.

Browsing CCC Library

Please explore CCC Library’s collections!

- Books in the Circulating Collection are on the shelves in the lower library area. Circulating Collection books can be checked out for 6 weeks.
- Periodicals (magazines, journals, and newspapers) are down the ramp. Find Easy English News, Easy English Times, and Reader’s Digest here.
- Daily local newspapers and new books are located just beyond the Circulation Services desk.
- Children’s books and graphic novels are also located just beyond the Circulation Services desk.
- Headphones and phone and laptop chargers are available at the Circulation Services desk.

Checking Out Items

Bring items to borrow and take home to the checkout counter under the Circulation Services sign.

You need your student ID to check out all items, including books and CDs.

Returning Items

Return books, including Course Reserves, to the checkout counter or in the drop box by the front door.

- Course Reserve textbooks have varying check-out periods.
- Books from the circulating collection may be checked out for 6 weeks.
- We do not have any late fines! But please return items on time.

Lost Items = $ Fine

- If you lose a book, don’t worry! Come talk to a Circulation Services staff member.
